

Lick of the Week #2

Here's a great 1950's Chet Atkins lick, from Dark Eyes.

Chet "flatpicked" licks like this with his thumbpick, using down and up strokes. Later in his career, he would alternate his thumb and index finger. Try it both ways and see which works best for you.

You can see Chet play this lick at about the 1:15 mark in this video:

I used my Gretsch 6122-1959 Country Gentleman.

Enjoy!

P.S. Remember, the first three years of Lick of the Week are available as downloads from www.craigdobbins.com.
